Activity Report: Key Extension and Outreach Programs (2019-2024)*Introduction

The following report details the key extension and outreach programs conducted from 2019 to 2024. These initiatives were organized by various units and agencies to address community needs and promote social welfare. The activities include cleanliness drives, health camps, blood donation camps, tree plantation drives, and more, each aimed at improving the quality of life and fostering community engagement.

Objectives

1. Promote Cleanliness: Increase awareness and participation in maintaining cleanliness through regular drives.
2. Encourage Blood Donation: Facilitate blood donation to support local healthcare needs.
3. Enhance Green Cover: Contribute to environmental sustainability through tree plantation.
4. Improve Health Awareness: Provide accessible healthcare services and information to underserved communities.
5. Empower Women: Support women's socio-economic development through training and awareness programs.

Scope

This report covers the range of activities carried out by the Student Forum and its collaborators, including the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, Blood Donation Camps, Tree Plantation Drives, Health Awareness Camps, Women's Empowerment Programs, Awareness Campaigns on Social Issues, and Disaster Relief and Rehabilitation Efforts. Each activity is aimed at addressing specific community needs, promoting environmental sustainability, and improving health and social awareness.
